16 COMES NOW TRANS PACIFIC EXPORT CO., LLC., Plaintiff herein, by and 17 through its attorneys, Smith & Williams, and moves this Court for an Order in Aid of 18 Judgment on the grounds that pursuant to a Settlement Agreement and Consent Judgment
19 Thereon dated August 5, 2002, judgment was entered in this matter in favor of Plaintiff
20 and against Defendants in the amount of $141,627.35, plus cost and interest. On August 21 5, 2002, this Court ordered Sablan Construction Company, Ltd. and Jesus S. Sablan
22 (judgment debtors) to make monthly payments of $2,500.00, beginning September 1, 23 2002, and every 1st of the month thereafter until fully paid. Judgment debtors stated in 24 January 2007, that they could pay $1000.00 per month. Since then the judgement debtors 25 have not been consistent with their payments in that they have only paid the amount of 26 $9,000.00 since January 2007. They have made no payments for the months of 27 November or December. The outstanding balance in their account as of the filing of this 28

1 motion is $55,786.42.

2 Debtor Jesus S. Sablan died in 2006. He was the President of Sablan
3 Construction Company, Ltd. Plaintiff does not believe that a probate action has been 4 initiated in any court for the assets of Jesus S. Sablan. Therefore, Plaintiff is not able at 5 this time to make a claim against the estate of Jesus S. Sablan.

6 For these reasons, Plaintiff believes that it is necessary to examine once again the 7 judgment debtors to determine their ability to pay more than that have in the past year on 8 the Judgment amount.
